PAG AUSTRALIA
International Plant and Animal Genome Conference
Westin Perth, Perth Australia • 20-22 September 2023

PLENARY SPEAKERS

BEN HAYES
Queensland Alliance for Agriculture and Food Innovation, Australia
Talk Title: “Chromosome Segment Stacking for Accelerated Genetic Gain and Maintaining Genetic Diversity in Crops and Livestock”

ROBERT HENRY
Queensland Alliance for Agriculture and Food Innovation, Australia
Talk Title: “Genomics of Australian Plants to Support Diversification of Agriculture”

JENNIFER MEADOWS
Uppsala University, Sweden
Talk Title: “Leveraging Base Pair Constraint from 240 Mammals to Understand Genetic Variation and Disease”

JENNIE PRYCE
La Trobe University, Australia
Talk Title: “The Methane Challenge - Selecting for Low Emitting Dairy Cows”

JOSQUIN TIBBITS
La Trobe University, Australia
Talk Title: “Weathering the Future: Concrete Actions to Meet the Food and Fibre Security Challenge”

CAMILLA WHITTINGTON
University of Sydney, Australia
Talk Title: “Convergent Evolution of Vertebrate Pregnancy and the Placenta”

XUN XU
BGI Research, China
Talk Title: “Understanding Biology through Spatiotemporal Omics”

Call for Workshop Proposals
Anyone in the global agri-genomics community is invited to submit a proposal

Call for Poster Abstracts
All registered PAG Australia attendees are invited to submit a poster abstract.

Student Competition
Student attendees are invited to submit a poster abstract, and 5 abstracts will be chosen for presentation at the P Australia

Full Conference/Non-Profit*
Attendees at university, government, and non-profit organizations.
$750

Full Conference/Industry*
Industry professionals at commercial organizations.
$1,250

Full Conference/Student*
Pre-Ph.D students. Requires upload of school certification documents.
$450

*Early registration pricing / rates increase July 15, 2023

www.intlpagaustralia.org
Scan for website